

8. Engineers may review but shall not approve those engineering documents that are in conformity with applicable standards.

True

False

Total Results: 0

9. Engineers shall not reveal facts, data...information without the prior consent of the client or employer except as authorized or required by law or this Code

True

False

Total Results: 0

10. Engineers shall not permit the use of their names or associates in business ventures with any person or firm that they believe is engaged in fraudulent or dishonest enterprise, unless such enterprise or activity is deemed consistent with applicable state or federal law.

True

False

Total Results: 0

11. Engineers having knowledge of any alleged violation of this Code, following a period of 30 days during which the violation is not corrected, shall report thereon to appropriate professional bodies and, when relevant, also to public authorities.

True

False

Total Results: 0

12. Engineers shall undertake assignments only when qualified by education or experience in the specific technical fields involved.

True

False

Total Results: 0

13. Engineers shall not affix their signatures to plans or documents dealing with subject matter in which they lack competence, but may affix their signatures to plans or documents not prepared under their direction and control where they have a good faith belief that such plans or documents were competently prepared by another designated party.

True

False

Total Results: 0

14. Engineers may accept assignments and assume responsibility for coordination of an entire project and shall sign and seal the engineering documents for the entire project, including each technical segment of the plans and documents.

True

False

Total Results: 0

15. Engineers shall strive to be objective and truthful in professional reports, statements or testimony, with primary consideration for the best interests of the engineers' clients or employers. The engineers' reports shall include all relevant and pertinent information in such reports, statements, or testimony, which shall bear the date on which the engineers were retained by the clients to prepare the reports.

Total Results: 0

16. Engineers may express publicly technical opinions that are founded upon knowledge of the facts and competence in the subject matter.

True

False

Total Results: 0

17. Engineers shall not issue statements, criticisms, or arguments on technical matters that are inspired or paid for by interested parties, unless they have prefaced their comments by explicitly identifying the interested parties on whose behalf they are speaking and revealing the existence of any interest the engineers may have in the matters.

A

True

B

False

Total Results: 0